

NURSERY NEWS 5th June 2018

Extra Sessions - September

We still have sessions available for September. If you are thinking of extending your child's hours with us for the new academic year please have a chat with Catherine or Ruth.

Starting School in September?

If your child is starting school in September we are able to offer adhoc sessions to help fill any childcare gaps caused by phased starts. Please speak to us if these may be of help to you.

Parents Evening 13th June

Don't forget parents evening on 13th June. Appointment sign up lists are now available outside each classroom.

Open Day for prospective families

We are holding an open day for prospective families on Saturday 16th June between 1.00 and 3.00 pm. If you know anyone who may be interested in coming along please let them know about it.
